

FOOTSTEPS OF WALKER EVANS

Lehigh Valley Bus Tour

Saturday September 27, 2008

Bridge and houses in [Phillipsburg, New Jersey; seen from] Easton, Pennsylvania
1935 Nov. (Courtesy of the Library of Congress)

The day will be spent touring the sites where Walker Evans made the 24 photographs of the Lehigh Valley that can be found in The Library of Congress FSA-OWI collection (<http://memory.loc.gov/ammem/fsahtml/>). Stops are scheduled, but not limited to the Northampton Street Bridge in Easton, St. Michael's Cemetery in Bethlehem and the Time Zones Gallery on East Third Street across from the former Bethlehem Steel plant where the exquisite Evans' prints made by John T. Hill and Sven Martson will be exhibited.

Running commentary will be provided by Rodger Kingston, Evans scholar and author of Walker Evans in Print: an Illustrated Bibliography. A laser printed catalogue of the Evans' photographs and related resource material will be provided as well as a box lunch. The estimated cost is $50-60 per person which will be confirmed when the level of interest is determined. The trolley will be departing from the Route 33 Park and Ride at Wm. Penn Highway. Those travelling from NYC can catch the 9:00 am Transbridge bus (www.transbridgelines.com) arriving at the Park and Ride at 10:50.