

The Works of Famous Photographer Walker Evans on Display for First Friday in south Bethlehem

Photography enthusiasts will find a captivating collection of original depression-era Walker Evans photographs on display at TIMEZONES Global Goodies & Framing Gallery at 322 East Third Street in south Bethlehem. The Evans show opens on Friday, September 5, 2008, from 7 p.m. until 9 p.m. The exhibit will be on display throughout the month of September.

Exhibition curators John Hill and Sven Martson are noted photographers who worked with Walker Evans. Evans has been regarded as one of America's greatest photographers. His work, Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, 1936, is perhaps one of his most famous photos. The SBHS has selected this "New Deal" photographer to feature for a month-long celebration in south Bethlehem.

On September 25, 2008, noted Evans scholar Rodger Kingston will be available at TIMEZONES to discuss Walker Evans from 7:30 p.m. until 9 p.m. The gallery is generally open Tuesdays through Fridays from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. and Saturdays from 10 a.m. until 6 p.m. There are books, posters, prints and photographs for sale in the gallery.

This photography exhibit is sponsored by South Bethlehem Historical Society, the Delaware and Lehigh National Heritage Corridor, and the Bethlehem Fine Arts Commission.
